

TEXAS

Los Angeles Times (1923-Current File); Nov 4, 1970;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Los Angeles Times (1881-1989)
pg. A24

TEXAS

DALLAS - Democrat Lloyd M. Bentsen Jr. won his bid for a U.S. Senate seat in Tuesday's election and defeated Republican Rep. George Bush, for whom President Nixon and Vice President Agnew campaigned personally.

Democratic Gov. Preston Smith won his race for reelection and defeated attorney Paul Eggers, a Wichita Falls Republican.

With 62% of the districts counted, Bentsen, a former congressman, had

Lloyd Bentsen

674,772 votes to 568,835 for Bush.

In the governor's race, where 60% of the ballots were reported, Smith rolled up 644,877 votes to Eggers' 578,673.